THE BEST IRISH THE GRAND JURY REPORT. LINENS.

Reply to the Strictures of Mr. John Loague.

The attacking of that impersonal Grand Jury Report harshiy and unkindprepared for the annoying Grand Juries; by him who talks flippantly of "our packed jury of friends," who are not able to comprehend his explanation -reminds me of a walk on the Kin-chin-ginga mountain, near the Ganges, a river in which the devoted mother often casts her dear babe, expecting that it will float on to heaven. That mount is a remarkable and romantic region, thirty thousand feet above the level, and many strange MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Now, it is evident, that if the great solvent, the guarise juice, is not produced in sufficient quantity, or if the mechanical action of the stomach is not sufficiently brisk, the first process of digration will be but imperfectly performed. It is also clear that if the liver, which plays such an important rart in changing the
